Am E F
I want to pledge allegiance to the country where I live
Am E F
I don't want to be ashamed to be American Am
but opportunity E
no it don't exist
F
it's the opiate
C
of the populace
Am
we need some harder shit now
the truth's getting around
F
and each public school is a halfway house E
where the huddled masses sober up and up C F
enough? There's not enough E Am G
to fatten the cows and feed all of us.
F G
It's just a rationing of luck
what can't be bought gets raffled off.
C F
oh god good god shed greed on thee,
E Am G
your shining sea turned a dirty green
F
from the industry G
off the shores of New Jersey

(Chords same as above)

I got a letter from the army so I think that I'll enlist I'm not brave or proud of nothing I just want to kill something too bad that nowadays you just point and click swing low satellite, hot white chariot in the computer s blue glare the bombs burst in the air there was a city once now nothing s there our freedom comes at their expense it makes sense does it?

Dollars and cents
they re stretching barbed wire across the picket fence that s surrounding your housing development in case you lack the confidence oh god my god give strength to thee these amber waves purple majesty is nothing but backdrops for Disney

C Dm
look up close it s superimposed
Am
on a blank blue screen yea its fantasy G fucking magical
C Dm
the dream floats like a chemical
Am
through each snapped synapse
