This is repeated through the whole song

Here are the lyrics though some might be wrong.

Hey how you doin
Yeah I m doin mighty fine
Last time I think
It s been a long time
Stop smiling let me get that look off your face
Please don t leave before ya
Stop being so fake
I know you do not like me
And you made it very clear
Your always talking bout me
From what I hear
Always put me down
When you thought that you could
I want you to know I m doing so good

Wasn t it you that said
I thought I was all that and you
Said I didn t have a clue
Wasn t it you that said
That I wouldn t make it through
And wasn t it you that said
That I didn t look to good
That I wouldn t do to good
I d never make it out the hood
I want you to know that I m doing so good

So good, so good, so good
I know you hate it but I m
So good, so good, so good
I m doin so so so so so good
So good, so good, so good,
It s hard to face it but I m
So good, so good, so good

This is for them fellas
That said we wouldn t make it
Now we re doin platinum
And now you can t take it
But all the people round us
That have been negative

Look at us now
See how we live
I stayed up with my people
I m a one to keep it real
Didn t get caught up
In how to make you feel
All the things I m doin
That you thought I never could
I want you to know that I m doin so good

Wasn t it you that said
I thought I was all that and you
Said I didn t have a clue
Wasn t it you that said
That I didn t look too good
Look at me now I ain t gone good
Now I made it out the hood
I want you to know that I m doin so good

Chorus

I m doin so so so so so
I m doin so so so so so
I m doin so so so so so
So good good good good good good
I m doin so so so so so
I m doin so so so so so
I m doin so so so so so

So good, so good, so good
I know you hate it but I m
So good, so good, so good,
I am so so good
So good, so good, so good
Baby face it I m doing good
Hey doin good good good
Doin good good good
