

Destroyers The Temple
Destroyer

Destroyerâ€™s The Temple

Capo 2

The only chords that concern the capo are the low E, which is formed by using a D in accordance to the capo and the A, which is formed by using a G formation in accordance to capo

B D#m G#m

And though the solitudes have won,

I cannot begin to crave you

E (low) C#m C# D#

Please spring us, Madeline, from these rusted jails of lust we live in;

E

I m living in...

B D#m G#m

I will find you, Lord, in the classified loves of three good women.

E (low) A (low) B

You are familiar with these terms, I trust

F# (high)

Don t you mind

E C#m

Our children go unseen to us

E C#m

The popular singers, they re mean to us

E (low)

You ll find: There s joy in being barred from the temple,

D#m E (low)

barred from the temple,

D#m E (low)

barred from the temple.

D#m E (low)

There s joy in being barred from the temple,

D#m E (low)

barred from the temple,

D#m E (low)
barred from the temple.

Riff:

C# D# - E F# Em D#m C#m

(bottom four strings plucked out an octave higher on heavy distortion)