[Verse]
             G   C
You re probably right, seen from your side, that I ve been lucky
    Em   D   C
but I ve been meaning to crack all week.
               G   C
Yes I ve been involved, it never resolved into anything shocking.
Em   D   C
Pains playing yoyo in my body as we speak.

[Pre-Chorus]
D   C   D
And now I found something to look for, ...but I can t decide,
      C   Am   F
 Cause I might find that to stroll behind is better than to score.
             D
Just like I did before.

[Verse]
(verse chords)
It wouldn t be true, not towards you, to say that I m staying.
When on every single impulse, on every other move I react.
 Cause in any old creek, with changing technique, you ll see me playing.
After any old motherfucking blow I ll be back. (C overslaan)

[Chorus]
G   Em   Bm
We turned away from instant stuff
             Bm   F#m
our cracking codes were breaking up
                  A   D
our words were sucked out it made them clean.
G   Em
And after lowness say it
Bm   F#m
and after more let it be known
                  A   D
Our codes are grown into something mean.

[Verse]
(verse chords)
You re probably right, as for tonight, you re making me nervous.
What is it you want me to be thinking of?
I ll put on a movie, I ll play something groovy as a matter of service
And I ll chuckle when you smile as a matter of love.
                  Em   D   C
 Cause you know it s not my style to be giving up now.
          Em   D
And this pain in my side, I had enough.

[Chorus]
(Chorus chords)
This time I go for Instant Street
This life s a soulless excuse for all abuse and parenthesis.
The flyspecked windows and the stinking lobbies they ll remain all the same, all the same.

[Solo]
(chorus chords) 2x

D (C#) F#m (C) Bm G (F#m) 2x

Repeat...

This time I go. This time I go...
