Intro: C C7M9

Verse 1:

C C7M9
Raise your glasses please into a toast
C C7M9
For we are many hometown ghosts.
C C7M9
Let it spill all over the floor.
C C7M9
What the hell are you saving it for?

C C7M9 C C7M9

C C7M9
On June, July, August, September.
C C7M9
Let s drink em all, I don t want to remember.
C C7M9 C C7M9
These have been the best years of our lives.

Chorus:

F
It s a shame my dear,
G F
There s no room for lost years.
C C7M9 C C7M9
So we re leaving, we re leaving tonight.

(chords are the same)

Verse 2:

You look lovely lying wasted on your bed,
Staring at a photograph of you and your best friend.
They said make a cross over your hearts,
And we ll swear we ll never drift apart.

Chorus:

It s a shame my dear,
To be leaving you here.

But we re leaving, we re leaving tonight.

Verse 3:

Oh my heroes, my brothers, where have you gone?
There is something in the air, something is wrong.
Where is my father, my mother, my sister, my lover?
Have you all gone over to the other side?

Chorus:

It s a shame my dears,
There s no room for me here.
So I m leaving, I m leaving tonight.
