Fools
Diane Birch

Fools by Diane Birch

posted by eduardopaulo

intro: C#/Eb Ebm

```
C#/Eb     Ebm C#/Eb        Ebm   C#/Eb         Ebm
Fo-      ols knockin  on my door, calling out my name

C#/Eb          Eb          Eb7
Tellin  me to change my ways but I know

G#m7            C#7  G#m7             C#7
Two hands in the fire won t put out the flame

G#m7             C#                  Ebm
Yeah, I got your number, I know your game

           G#m7    C#7              F#      B  B4 B
So why should I-     I lay it on the li-      -ne?

G#m7             Bbm7    Ebm          C#  Ebm
Everybody s got a vision, everybody s got a    plan

           G#m7   C#7               F#   B      B4 B
You tell me li-    ies, you look me in the e-  yes

   G#m7                   Bbm7         Ebm   C# Ebm
But honey I would rather stand out in the rain
```

(the rest of the song is just as before)

Fools lying in my bed, laughin in my head
Telling me my dream s gone cold but I know
One city of angels, it ain t goin put out my flame
Ooh, my love is a fire, no one can tame
So why should I lay it on the line?
Everybody s got a vision, everybody s got a plan
You tell me lies, you look me in the eyes
But honey I would rather stand out in the rain
Why should I lay it on the line?
Well, everybody s got a vision, everybody s got a plan
You tell me lies, you look me in the eyes
But honey I would rather stand out in the rain
Everybody s got a vision, everybody s got a plan
You tell me lies, you look me in the eyes
But honey I would rather stand out in the rain