Capo 4

F# C# G# B
Angels Falling from the sky
F# C# G# Ebm
only seen through naked eyes
F# C# G# B
Whats this wonder that i see
F# C# G# Ebm
Could it be my destiny Falling star in the far burning up with power my heart full of desire Could this be my destiny

Chorus:

F# C# G# Ebm
I dance as the oceans crash on the shore
F# C# G# Ebm
I will shine as the moonlight on your open door
F# C# G# Ebm
I will sing as the wind racing through the trees
F# C# G# Ebm
and I will soar like an eagle, to find my destiny

My sould cries out to me spread your wing and fly free but i clutch the ground in fear where am i to go from here
Then the storm clouds break apart
A hope and peace from my heart it knows away to make me free my heart will find my destiny

Chorus:

My mind screams out give it up my body yells we ve had enough and people say i wont survive how am i to stay alive?
So when i fear the path i take when i feels its a big mistake

Stop an listen my heart will see and lead me to my destiny
