Intro: | E |

Verse 1:

(E)

I have returned, to northern skies,

Am

E

Where the summer hasn't touched, the clouds that pass above

(E)

I have returned, to the somber grace,

Am

E

Of the days too early to come, and too hurried to stay.

Verse 2:

(E)

Oh I have left, a million stars,

Am

E

And an ocean light, and clearly blue.

(E)

And I have left, the warmth of the sun,

Am

E

And a million adventures, not yet begun.

Chorus 1:

D

A

E

For once there was beauty here for me,

E

Under the wide_____, northern skies

D A E
And once there was magic here for me,
 D A E
Under the wide____, northern skies.

Verse 3:

(E)
I saw trees as green, and this dark as blue,
 Am E
Heartbreak and poetry, with deeper roots
(E)
Now I know, this is lonely country,
 Am E
And it leads me only, back to the sea.

Chorus 2:

D A E
For once there was beauty here for me,
 D A E
Under the wide____, northern skies,
 D A E
And once there was magic here for me,
 D A E
Under the wide____, northern skies.

Verse 4:

(A) E
I have returned, to northern skies,
 Am E
Where the summer hasn't touched, the clouds that pass above
(E)
I have returned, to the somber grace,
 Am E
Of the days too early to come, and too hurried to stay.
