

The Drunk Welshman
Die Kammer

song contains tempo/pacing shifts when fast: strum Bass, Bass, Down Down Up (see pattern above)
when slow: hold the chords/ let chords ring

[Verse 1]

C G Am
She climbed onto the iron balustrade
C G Am
And balanced on the edge
C G Am
She stared into the endless deep
C G Am
Got ready for her final act

[Verse 2]

F C
Whatever harmed or hurt you, honey
G Am
The drunk Welshman said
F C
It s never worth to give in darling
G E7
Come on, let s have a drink instead

[Chorus]

Cause,
C G Am
there s nothing cool about dying
C G Am
There s nothing cool in saying goodbye
C G Am
There s nothing cool about dying
C G Am
There s nothing cool in saying goodbye

[Post-Chorus]

C G Am Am
C G Am Am

[Verse 3]

C G Am

Her body shivered from the cold
A gale was blowing through her hair
She smiled and stood straight as a pole
And raised her arms into the air

[Verse 4]

Death shall have no dominion, honey
The drunk Welshman said
And on our path into oblivion
These wise words shall be spread

[Chorus]

Cause,
there s nothing cool about dying
There s nothing cool in saying goodbye
There s nothing cool about dying
There s nothing cool in saying goodbye

[Post-Chorus]

C G Am Am
C G Am Am

[Bridge]

Take your life by the hand
No, don t waste your time
Take your life by the hand
Don t wait for the promised land

[Chorus]

Cause,
C G Am

there s nothing cool about dying
C G Am
There s nothing cool in saying goodbye
C G Am
There s nothing cool about dying
C G Am
There s nothing cool in saying goodbye

[Post-Chorus]

C G Am Am
C G Am Am

[Instrumental]

C G Am Am
C G Am Am (x2)

[Verse 5]

F C
I never meant to jump down, honey
G Am
The young girl pacified
F C G Am
I wanted to remember how good it feels to be alive
