

Roses And Wine
Diego Garcia

Dm

Ever since it started

A#

Girl I always knew

F

From that moment, that I would love you

Dm

It was Sunday morning

A#

The bells in the air

F

As I caught the shadow, of your long red hair

Dm

Roses and Wine

F

Crimson and Thyme

Roses and Wine

You talk so slowly

In the morning rain

I ll remember forever

Our faiths the same

I knew from that moment

All things must end

There is no reason

For us to pretend

Roses and Wine

Crimson and Thyme

Roses and Wine

Tell me you love

That s all I need to hear

Then I ll have no need to stay and I can disappear

Tell me you love me

You ve never said before

Even when we were together I was never sure

I m waiting

I m waiting

Roses and Wine

Crimson and Thyme

Roses and Wine

Give me 50 reasons

I ll give you 50 more

But you never listen

as you shut the door

Should I wait forever
For your return
Should I wait forever
Will I ever learn
Will I ever learn

Roses and Wine
Crimson and Thyme
Roses and Wine

Roses and Wine
Crimson and Thyme
Roses and Wine
