B

There ain t enough bourbon in Kentucky

E

For me to forget you.

B

No there ain t enough matches I can strike

E

To set afire the memory of you.

G#m

F#m

Up goes down, right s gone left me behind.

E

C#m

Wheels spin round, reverse stuck in my mind.

[CHORUS]

B

There ain t enough bourbon in Kentucky

E

For me to forget you.

B

No there ain t enough bottles I could break

E

To make em feel as broken as I do.

G#m

Stack up every barrel

F#m

Since the day it was made.

E

C#m

Satisfaction guaranteed to kill the pain.

B

But there ain t enough kisses from a stranger

On a long wild night to ever make it alright

E

If it ain t you.

B

In my arms, in my bed, yeah to hell with all the rest

Once you ve had the best

E

Nothing else will do. What s the use.

[CHORUS]

B

There ain t enough bourbon in Kentucky

E

For me to forget you.

B

No there ain t enough bottles I could drain

E

To make em feel as empty as I do.

G#m

With my mouth wide open

F#m

In a whiskey rain

E

C#m

I could stand there 24 hours a day.

Instrumental: G#m, F#m, E, C#m

B

But there ain t enough bourbon in Kentucky

E

For me to forget you.

B

No there ain t enough bottles I could drain

E

To make em feel as empty as I do.

B

No there ain t enough bourbon in Kentucky

E

For me to forget you.

B

So forget you.
