Drawerings by Dinosaur Jr

I noticed DJ s been in some demand round here, so here s a song from Where you been.

Verse 1

A E Bm D
Do you know that it s all right
A E Bm D G
I been thinking, seein that s not how it has to be
A E Bm D
Ain t sayin if it s worth the fight
A E Bm D G
I m a space but you can count on me to save your place

Verse 2

C#m D E
And I know it s all to do with you and me
C#m D E
Do you know if you re against the deal, well wait and see.
C#m D E
But I d love to hear that story once again
C#m D E
It s the only part of me you still defend

Verse 1 chords

Did you know I heard your voice
When I called to see if you re around I had no choice
Then the news is in my face
Took a step to let the feeling go, I lost my place

Verse 2 Chords

And I swear I hear the same thing every night
Once again, no accounting for the hours I spend Baked as anytime I ve drifted out of sight
Remember when we didn t need this time to mend

Verse 1 Chords

Anywhere you d like to go
Would it help to be inside the life I couldn t know
If you shake it, it won t show
Hold out for me cause bailin at this point is really low

F#m D Bm C#m
///// / / /

Verse 2 chords

And I know it s all to do with just a friend
And I can t decipher messages you send
But I d love to hear thatr story once again
It s the only part of me you still defendI believe the solo is an A blues deal but with J Mascis who knows

If anybody s got some other DJ stuff not at Nevada, please mail me.
