

Watch The Corners
Dinosaur Jr.

[Intro] C#m riff

E            B                    C#m
Every morning came
          A                    F#m                    A
I don t like that you can hide in E            B                    C#m
We expect the same
          A                    F#m                    A
but I ve no one to confide in

C#m            A                    E            B
and I want you to be with us
C#m            A                    E            B
and in time there s no forgiveness
C#m            A                    E            B
and the plan was set in stone long ago
C#m            A                    E            B
there s never not a time not to know

F#m
Can I run, but you ll be there
          A
disappear it s never fair
          E
it s like a stare
                                  B
when I call to tell you no
                                  F#m
every action going slow
                                  A
can I whisper all alone
                                  E
can I find it far from home
                                  B
there s a time to make you move F#m                    A
all at once the time flew

[Solo] F#m A E B

[Chorus]

F#m          A                  E
Hey me watch the corners,
          B                                  F#m
watch me cause I know what you done

A                  E
hey me don t you know

B
watch me cause I m all alone
