Only The Strong, Only The Brave Dionne Warwick

Bm7 C#m Gm7 Am7

I know that the road to love can be paved with tears

Bm7 G7

Maybe I $\mathfrak m$ a fool to love you knowing life is cruel Only the strong, only the brave

Am7 Bm7

Can survive all the heartaches that tear most people apart $Am7$

Can survive all the heartaches and still keep love alive

When you reach out for a star people pull you down Swear to be true is easy, but I m telling you Only the strong, only the brave Will be loving each other each single step of the way Will be loving each other with all the fears of today

Our love is strong, our love is brave I know, I know our love will last
