

Truth Begins
Dirty Pretty Things

In my opinion this is one of only two decent songs on the album...

Intro-

A# A#7 D# F

Verse-

A# A#7
This is where the truth begins, where tear drops glance the fallow skin,

D# F
You lose your will, then I can lead you mine,

A# A#7 D#
The westway wall is so tall and bleak, reflect the words we dare not speak,

F
And by the bottle's end, we may have done our time,

Bridge-

F F#m Gm Cm
What you want is to stay away from people like me,

F
Who twist most everything they see,

Gm F
And leave the grey old world behind you,

Chorus-

A# Dm D#
Sow it up and have some clout,

Dm A#
We'll go to mine and fall about,

Dm Gm Gm F
The sun will shine tomorrow,

A# Dm D#
Look beyond the parapet,

Dm A#

We re just bums lest you forget,

Dm

Gm

Gm F

We can beg steal or borrow,

Verse 2

Bridge 2

Chorus 2

etc

will finish doing this later,

Nathan