Yesterday is over

Bm G
The dust has come to rest on all the tears you left

Bm
But you re still here

G
Yesterday is over

Bm G
The storm has come to an end six feet from where you stand

Bm
But you hold on to everything

A Bm
Open up your hands (yeah you hold on to everything)

A
Open up your hands

And let go of what's behind you
The past can't hurt you anymore or keep you on the ground
Will you let this be the moment
That you let go of yourself
Let his love hold on to you

And he won't let go,
And he won't let go
His eyes are always set on you
His arms are always holding you
And he won't let go
But you gotta let go of everything
You gotta let go of everything
Open up your hands

And let go of what's behind you
The past can't hurt you anymore or keep you on the ground
Will you let this be the moment
That you let go of yourself
Let his love hold on to you
And he won't let go,
And he won't let go
And he won't let go,
And he won't let go...
