

Arms Unfolding

Dodie Clark

D
Hope I m not tired of rebuilding
A
Cause this might take a little more
G A D
I think I d like to try look at you
G A D
And feel the way I did before

D
Oh, our fire died last winter
A
All of the shouting blew it out
G A D
You know I could live without or with you
G A D
But I might like having you about

G A D Bm
Yes, these new walls are pretty hard to crack
G A D Bm
And it might take a while until I trust you won t attack
G A D Bm
Oh, I d apologize, but it was only self-defense
G A
Running away just made sense

D
But here I am with arms unfolding
A
I guess it isn t quite the end
G A D
Old partner in crime, I m going to try
G A D
To fall in love with you again
