

Broken Arms

Does It Offend You, Yeah?

Verse 1:

C F
We ve had this grudge forever and ever

G F
Alone refused forget to discover, the clamor

C F
And all the pieces fell from each other, together

G F
Seems strange is turning the weather, and whatever

Chorus:

Dm C F G
Broken arms and twisted ligaments

Dm C F G
To the great beyond the big magnificence

Dm C F G
The rain falls down and all that s left of her

Dm C F
The seasons change but still I remember

Verse 2 (same as Verse 1):

All my failures ties together, and tethered
I ll freeze you out till your show stops flailing, and starts falling
Prove the faithful die with each other, together
Still strange is turning the weather, and whatever

Chorus 2:

Broken arms and twisted ligaments
To the great beyond the big magnificence
The grateful dead is all that s left of her
The seasons change but still I remember her

Bridge: C - G - F (I m not sure if this is the correct way)

P.S.: I hope this is good, this is pretty much my first tab :)
