Jackie Leven, frontman of the band, died on the 14th of November 2011, at the far too young age of 61. He had been very ill for a while.

His great music will live forever though, thanks Jackie!

[Verse 1]

|G |Em
I dressed you in the morning,
|C |G
for a journey through the past.
|D D/A |G
We signed our names in shadows,
|C |D
that I promised you would last.
|Dm C |G
Main travelled roads before us,
D/F# |Em D |C
passing slowly out of sight.
|D C |G
The haunted valley chorus,
|C |G |./. |./. |./.
sweeping softly through the night.

[Verse 2]

|G |Em
The last ones in were waiting,
|C |G
for their call to take the stage.
|D D/A |G
And when the curtains opened,
|C |D
they stood like lovers in a cage.
|Dm C |G
The crowd in perfect silence,
D/F# |Em D |C
closed their eyes to hide their shame.
|D C |G
The dressing rooms are empty,
|C |G |./. |./.
and nobody is to blame.

[Verse 3]

| G | Em
I walked through fields of honour,
| C | G
where the gentle earth has bled.
| D | D/A | G
The young men are still fighting,
| C | D
and the forest tracks are red.
| Dm | C | G
The hotel lifts are broken,
D/F# | Em | D | C
and the trains are running slow.
| D | C | G
The blind man at reception,
| C | G | ./.
never missed a single show.

[Verse 4]

| G | Em
Main travelled roads behind me,
| C | G
and a white bird in the sky.
| D | D/A | G
A secret sign to show me,
| C | D |
where the ocean comes to die.
Dm | C | G
I arose and left you,
D/F# | Em | D | C
sleeping in your silent room.
| D | C | G | ./.
E-ternal is the warrior,
| C | G | ./.
who finds beauty in his wounds. | : Fade Out
