

Lonely Coming Down

Dolly Parton

D E D A
I woke up this morning in a strange place,
D E D A
I looked into the mirror at a strange face.
D E D A
Then I looked for you, but you could not be found,
G A
then I felt the lonely coming down.

D E D A
I walked across the room to the empty bed,
D E D
A saw the impress on the pillow where you laid your head.
D E D A
The presence of you still lingered all, all around,
G A
And once again I felt the lonely coming down.

D E D A
Then I felt the lonely dragging down my face,
D E D A
as I realized no one could take your place.
A
I wondered where the love had gone that you and me had felt,
G A
then again I felt the lonely coming down.
A
I wondered where the love had gone that you and me had felt,
G A
and again I felt the lonely coming down.
