Am          D          Am
My life is like unto a bargain store

          D          Am

          D          Am
If you don t mind the fact that all the merchandise is used

          D          Am
But with a little mending it could be as good as new
```

VERSE:

Am          D          Am
Why you take for instance this old broken heart

Take it and you never will be sorry that you did
