The Search Dolorean

artist: Dolorean

Dolorean emerged from sleepy Silverton, OR, in 1999, after guitarist/vocalist Al James invited Standard keyboard enthusiast Jay Clarke to play on a slew of his quiet, avant folk home recordings. Sudden Oak, the duo s debut EP, appeared that same year, and Dolorean began playing out.

capo 1 (without capo beneath)

D C

Surely, there is a mine for silver

And a place where they refine gold

C

Iron, is taken from the hills

G

And copper is taken from the ground

So where s the place of understanding

G 1

And where can wisdom be found?

Am G C D

Oh ho-oh, oh ho-oh oh

Am G C D

Oh ho-oh, oh ho-oh, oh ho-oh oh

D C

No bird of prey has gazed upon it

G D

Nor falcons I have seen

Db

It s never been passed by a fierce lion

g I

Or trod upon by earthly beasts

C

So where s the place of understanding?

G :

And where can wisdom be found?

Pure gold cannot be traded for it
Please don t mention crystal-ware
Topaz of Africa cannot equal it
And fine pearls fail to compare
So where s the place of understanding?
And where can wisdom be found?
Wisdom is found in the fear of the Lord
And understanding those who depart from evil
Wisdom is found in the fear of the Lord
And understanding those who depart from evil
