Intro
C, G, Am, F

C G
Knew a young girl in my highschool years. Never found herself short on tears
Am F
Til she found someone her heart could beat for

C G
Then one day she thought she d come clean. Without sounding like a drama queen
Am F
Tell the one she loved just how she felt for her

Em F Am G
And her love said you must be crazy now, you know that we re both girls
Em F G
Further more you know I m your best friend
Em F Am G
And her love said I may be crazy but your also my whole world
Em F G
And my love for you could never find an end

C G
So they started out rendezvous, weekend nights and after school
Am F
Studying and making up routine

C G
And they loved to kiss and hold each other, always missing one another
Am F
Find the places other people have never seen

Em F Am G
But the eyes of the law they were on top of their game
Em F G
Surprise, surprise the folks they don t approve
Em F Am G
And when the kids at school caught word of it they started calling names
Em F G
Except for the ones that thought it was pretty cool

CHORUS

Take my hand, living in an outlaw love

The only one you re thinking of is the one that you re holding in your arms

Yeah when your love s outside the law, there ain t nobody else at all

Didn t mean no disrespect, didn t mean no harm

They were just trying to follow their hearts

Like they were told from the very start

I was friendly with a kid who never dug school

Saw right through the rhymes and rules

He was every schoolgirl s secret crush

So he opted for the silver screen

Living out the American dream

Everything that he had didn t add up to much

Til he ran into a little sweetheart who was heading his way

Said your the prettiest girl I ve ever seen

She said hey I think I like you when you re heading my way

Then again I m only seventeen

CHORUS

Take my hand, living in an outlaw love

The only one you re thinking of is the one that you re holding in your arms

Yeah when your love s outside the law, there ain t nobody else at all

Didn t mean no disrespect, didn t mean no harm

They were just trying to follow their hearts

Like they were told from the very start

Knew a young girl with a ring on her finger

Loved her fiance and everything that he d bring her
Was great but he never listened to a word she said
And it drove her stark crazy, sad and hurt
Started making eyes with the guy at work
And everything he said resounded in her head
When the rings came off you know the harshest words were spoke
Prayers were offerered up to make it all alright
Families hung their heads and young dreams were broken
But the young lovers whispered on the telephone each night

CHORUS

I love you too, living in an outlaw love
The only one you re thinking of is the one that you re holding in your arms
Yeah when your love s outside the law, there ain t nobody else at all
Didn t mean no disrespect, didn t mean no harm
They were just trying to follow their hearts
Like they were told from the very start

And if following your heart should ever lead you astray
Then why so many people got so many things to say?
C est la vie

ILL FINISH IT LATER
