

I Recall A Gypsy Woman
Don Williams

[Verse]

Eb7        G#                    C#        G#
Silver coins that jingle jangle,
                                 Eb7
dancing shoes that dance in time
Eb7        G#                    C#        G#                                    Eb7        G#
All the secrets of her dark eyes, they did sing in gypsy rhyme
Eb7        G#        C#                    G#                                    Eb7
Yellow clover, entangled blossom, in a meadow silver green
Eb7        G#                    C#        G#                                    Eb7        G#
Where she held him, to her bossom, just a boy of seventeen

[Chorus]

C#                                    G#                                    Eb7
I recall a gypsy woman, silver spangles in her eyes
Eb7        G#        C#                    G#
Ivory skin against the moonlight,
                                 Eb7
and a taste of life s sweet wine

[Verse]

Eb7        G#                    C#                                    G#
South breezes blow from fragrant meadow
G#                                    Eb7
Stir the darkness in my mind
Eb7        G#                    C#                                    G#
Oh gentle woman who sleeps beside me
G#                                    Eb7                                    G#
They don t know who haunts my mind
Eb7        G#        C#                    G#
Gypsy lady I hear your laughter,
                                 Eb7
and it dances in my head
Eb7        G#                    C#        G#                                    Eb7        G#
While my tender wife and babies, slumber softly in there beds

[Chorus]

C#                                    G#                                    Eb7
I recall a gypsy woman, silver spangles in her eyes
Eb7        G#                    C#                                    G#

Ivory skin against the moonlight,
Eb7 G#
and a taste of life s sweet wine
