*from A Gift from a Flower to a Garden (1968)*

Verse 1:

G                      G/F#                      Em
There was a time, I thought of mine only.
G                      G/F#                      Em
Could it be, oc-curred to me while lonely.

Chorus 1:

C                      Bm                      Em                      C
I was noble personage, born to beauti-fy the page.
Em                      C                      Em                      C                      D7
If I used time to set it down.

Verse 2:

G                      G/F#                      Em
There was a time, I thought of mine only.
G                      G/F#                      Em
Could it be, oc-curred to me while lonely.

Chorus 2:

C                      Bm                      Em                      C
I was of high lineage, cast up in a dreadful age.
Em                      C                      Em                      C                      D7
Born to be the hermit of my line.

Bridge 1:

Bm                      F#m                      Bm                      F#m
On a windy saturday, St. Alban s market day.
Em    C
Little did I know the work I was to do,
Bm                      Em                      D7
Or the love I had to show.

Verse 3:

G                      G/F#                      Em
There was a time, I thought of mine only.

G                    G/F#                    Em
Could it be, oc-curred to me while lonely.

Chorus 3:

C                    Bm                    Em                    C
I was of high lineage, cast up in a dreadful age.
Em                    C                    Em    C    D7
Born to be the hermit of my line.

Outro:

G   G/F#   Em
