G C

G C

Em Am

Bm Am
Will you do the trick?

I burnt the candle on every side
Long since run out of wick
Will you be my flame tonight?
Will you do the trick?

I been split down the middle
Call a doctor quick!
I'm in need of a better half
Will you do the trick?

I just can't find my way all alone
Man this fog is so thick
Won't you shine your light for me?
Will you do the trick?

I've thrown everything at the wall

But nothing will stick
Won t you hand around a while?
Won t you do the trick?

I could build you a home on high
I could lay each and every brick
Will you be there by my side?
Will you do the trick?
