Last Morning chords

Dr. Hook and The Medicine Show *

E

E

This is the last morning, that I wake up in this dirty city,

B

looking for the sunshine, as the buildings block the skies

B7

This is the last morning, that I wash in rusty water,

E

trying to shave a face, that I don t even recognize

E

Down the hallway rats are skittering, I can smell the garbage rotting;

A

hear the children crying, in an apartment, down below

B7

This is the last morning, that I m gonna have to listen to it,

E Esus E

I m going home, yeah

E

This is the last morning, that I try to breath the heavy air,

B

B7

fight the crowds, avoid the traffic, watch the world turn grey

This is the last morning, that I drink my coffee standing up,

E

smile and speak to strangers, who just turn and walk away

E

This is a tough cold city here, and I ll guess I ll never cut it here

A

And I m so tired of trying to stand against it, all alone

B7

This is the last morning, that I m gonna have to fight it,

E Esus E

I m going home, yeah

E

This is the last morning that I wear these greasy overalls,

B

punch the clock, and do just what I m told, to get along

B7

And face the long evening, laying close beside my radio,

E

Esus E

imagining the kisses, of the girl that sings the song

E

Down below the subway s screaming, as I lay here halfway dreaming

E

Looking at the ceiling, wondering where, the dream went wrong (where, where)

B7

This is the last morning, that I m gonna have to think about it,

E Esus E

I m going home, yeah

E Esus E E Esus E E Esus E

I m going home, I m going home, I m going home

* Alternate:

Capo II

E = D

B = A

B7 = A7

A = G
