Cos you made up your mind and left me behind could you fire who gave you the covers

But im lasting a long ride people would say that your the one that got away

The day is a new the past is forgotten

But still i remember when i fell rotten

Cos im sick of the same things got to open my mind and leave her behind with everyday i feel alot stronger cos yesterday dont live any longer yes the future is so bright gotta kick up the dust and hope for the bus
