Fifty Years Too Late Drake White

Fifty Years too Late Drake White

This is a very bluesy song. I like to hammer on the E every couple of beats and palm mute the majority of the song.

Intro: E G A E

Verse 1

Ε

I love spring and dogs and rusty screen doors

G

Candle light on creaky wood floors

A

A good sunrise and fireflys in a jar, yessir

_

A banjo ringing through the pines

G

The way I feel on homemade wine and jug fishing

F

Under a sky full of stars

Pre-Chorus 1

A

Said I m okay, yes, I m just fine

Α

Just wish the world would move slower

В

Or that I could go back in time

Chorus

Е

Well, but I m still a down home southern boy

G A

I don t need nothing just enough to get me by

I was raised at an early age when you shake a man s hand

A 1

You look him square in the eye

E (

Well, I m a real cool, old school, don t you lie to me fool

A :

There ain t a damn thing about me fake

3

I m a modern day John Wayne, got my daddy s last name

A E E G A E

Born fifty years too late, yep

```
Verse 2

E

G

So whatever happened to an honest day s work

E

Sweating hard in a flannel shirt

E

G

It s a fast paced rat race, no giving all take

E

Who s gonna finish first

E

G

Cause the administration s trying to rule the population

E

Folks, we gotta stand up, we gotta fight

Pre-Chorus 2

E

But I don t complain, just take it all in stride

A

It just seems this whole world, it has changed

B

Almost overnight

(Repeat Chorus)

Instrumental: E G A E (4X)

(Repeat Chorus)
