[Verse 1]

There s a man in the mountains, of east Tennessee
With three generations, making that gentleman s drink
He pours in his soul, then the corn from his land
Then he lets that old clock, do what only it can

[Instrumental]

F C G C

[Verse 2]

We were kids when I met her, then I quit that small town
A handful of years later, shit just look at her now
Just like that whiskey, she grew strong and smooth
And old father time, he knew just what to do

[Chorus]

It takes ti-me, can t rush your way right through this life
Ti- me, no crop donâ€™t grow overnight
Ti- me, gotta put the work in to get it right
Woah oh, Lord it just takes time (ya)

[Instrumental] x2

F C G C

[Verse 3]

Well a bird dropped a seed, and it bloomed in the woods
It took 200 years, to fall from where it stood
It took the hands of a maker, and the sweat from his brow

F C G
To make that tree this guitar Iâ€™m playinâ€™ now

[Chorus]

F C G
It takes ti-me, can t rush your way right through this life
F C G
Ti- me, no crop donâ€™t grow overnight
F C E Am
Ti- me, you gotta put the work in to get it right
F C G C
Woah oh, Lord it just takes time

[Bridge]

F C G C
