Fall For Your Type

D E F#m

Can I, can I save you from you (yeah)

Cause you know there s something

D

Missing and that champagne you ve

Been sipping not suppose to make you

D

Different all the time.

E

It s starting to feel like the wrong thing

F#m

To do (yeah); cause with all that recognition

D

It gets hard for you to listen to the things

D

That I must say to make you mine.

E

But live girl, have some fun girl. We ll be fine

F#m

Trying to convince myself I found one

D

Making a mistake I never learned from!

[Chorus:]

D E F#m

I swear, I always fall for your type (yeah)

D

For your type.

D E F#m

Tell me why, I always fall for your type (ohhohh)

D

For your type.

D

I just cant explain this shit at all!

E

Never believed in people like you!

D E

Cause who am I to judge you on the past, girl

F#m

I bet there s a reason for it all

D

You say that you re nothing like the last girl

D

I just pray that you don t let me down right now

E

But it s too late cause I m already yours

F#m

You just gotta promise me hearts won t break

D

And end up like before

D E F#m

I swear, I always fall for your type (yeah)

D

For your type.

D E F#m

Tell me why, I always fall for your type (ohhohh)

D

For your type.

D

Look

E

Dress hangin off your shoulder, barely sober

Telling me how you re moving away and starting over

F#m

Girl, quit playin you just drunk, you just saying shit

D

And you dance, dance like high like ballet and shit

D

Oh, wait, no I get it girl I m wit it

E

F#m

But forget it, damn, damn

D

I wonder why I never learned my lesson

D

It s feeling like its second chance and it s the first impression

And I heard there s nothing new except for someone new

E

But how you supposed to find the one when anyone don t come with you

F#m

Talking to myself but I never listen

D

Cause, man, it s been a while and I swear that this ones different

D

That s why I ma take you anywhere you wanna go

E

Let you meet my friends so they can lecture me again

About how reckless I have been

F#

And I m slowly running out of all the time that I invested

D

Making all the same mistakes

And I m just trying to correct it, and I fall

D E F#m

I swear, I always fall for your type (yeah)

D

For your type.

D E F#m

Tell me why, I always fall for your type (ohhohh)

D

For your type.

D

I just cant explain this shit at all!

E
