Repete a mesma cifra na parte do rap:

Cmaj7 - D - G - Em - D

[Verso 2]

Ok look, I m honest

Girl I can t lie, I miss you

You and the music were the only things that I commit to

I never cheated, for the record, back when I was with you

But you believe in everything but me girl, I don t get you

She says I know you changed, I never see you

Cause you re always busy doing things

I really wish she had a different way of viewing things

I think the city that we re from just kinda ruined things

It s such a small place: not much to do but talk and listen

The men are jealous and the women all in competition

And now your friends telling you stories that you often misinterpret

And taint all your images of your Mr. Perfect

I could tell that you been crying all night, drinking all summer

Praying for your happiness, hope that you recover

Uh this is one I know you hated when you heard it

And it s worse because you know that I deserve it

[refrão]
