Chorus I

Bury Me By Dresden (Be-Easy) warning this is my first tab, some of it still sounds a little off (i.e. I figured out the basic chords and it sounds close enough but they are likely using modified chords for some of them) Intro (B G#m C#m) Verse I G#m you found me here Cmburied beneath my bitter heart C#m G#m it was so simple for me to keep you on the outside so i let you stay there to tell me the view C#m в from the dark G#m the dark has always told me how to act C#m В from the start loop intro Verse II G#m dont shut me out my blood is running colder C#m в this year G#m and i saved it all in a shot glass for you C#m В for you G#m I m growing tired of this run around C#m в I m running through G#m don t let me down, I let you down I let you down pre-chorus (B F# G#m F#)

В

F# В
                                 G#m
you blocked me out and now I m done
            F#
I m underground I cant see the sun
                F#
                                         F#
I guess this is all that I can do
Verse III
                                        G#m
we got back home from school spend some time
 C#m apart
                                 G#m
some time to grow, some time to grow
C#m apart
                                 G#m
                                         C#m В
I tried my hardest to get some rest
                                         C#m eyes wide open from what you said
Chorus II
               F# G#m
you blocked me out and now I m done
            F#
I m underground I cant see the sun
                F#
                                         F#
I guess this is all that I can do so bury me where I m underground
                F#
along with the other poor souls that you found
                F#
                                G#m
I guess this is all that I can do
(X2)

Thank you for reading my tab, hope this helps,

feel free to comment any Suggestions, corrections, additions or simply comments

I hope to update this tab soon with the lead which i am still working out

(the intro lead and the for front lead for the chorus(and pre) seem to be all on the B string)

Thanks CC
