A Place To Lay My Head Drew Holcomb and The Neighbors Album: Good Light Capo 5 Intro C G (x3) Em D

Verse

Staring at the ceiling, the bridges that were burned

C G C C
Standing in the shadows, a high for the restless heart

C G Em

D
Strangers and the scarecrows, I lost the race before the start

C G G C G

C G Em D
Fortune and the beauty, the tides that never turned

Chorus

C G C G
I need a place to lay my head

C G Em D
I need a place to lay my head

Verse

Chorus

C G
Just a matter of time before the castle turns to sand

C G

And after all my remedies, there s still blood on my hands

C G C G

```
G
                                           Em D
I need a place to lay my head
I need a place to lay my head
                                   Em D
Mmmmm a place to rest
Bridge
CGCGCGEm D (x3, building up)
Verse
С
                G
                                          G
Out on the highway, dancing low
       C
                                                     Em
                                                             D
The thunder of a heartbeat in these weary bones
Chorus
I need a place to lay my head
                           C
                                   G
                                           Em D
I need a place to lay my head
                                  G
                                           C G
I need a place to lay my head
                                    G
                                           Em D
I need a place to lay my head
   C
Woah-oh (x3)
  Em
Woah-oh
C G (x3) Em D
I need a place to lay my head (x2)
```

I need a place to lay my head

Support this band!