What Would I Do Without You
Drew Holcomb and The Neighbors

Beautiful song! To me the standard F sounds as if it s barred, however it ll sound fine in open too!
I didn t write out the rhythm but I m sure after a few listens even beginners will have it :)
Enjoy!

edit: couple of chords were changed to be more accurate. Thanks to Greemur for the heads up.

When colors turn to shades of gray

My imagination gets the best of me

The difference between what I ve said and done

And you re still standing by my side
   G       E7          F
A guilty soul and a worried mind

You got your sunshine, I got rain clouds
