Drive-By Truckers

Song: Bob

Album: Brighter Than Creations Dark

Tuning: Down One Step

D A G D
Bob goes to church every Sunday, Every Sunday that the fish ain't biting

D A
Bob never has to have dinner with the preacher,

G D
cause Bob never bothered getting married

A
He likes to drink a beer or two every now and again,

G
he always had more dogs than he ever had friends

D A G D
Bob ain't light in the loafers, he might kneel but he never bends over

Bob takes care of his mama, she's the only one he lets call him Robert
She don't drive anymore so he takes her to the store and keeps her yard looking just like she wants it Every week at the beauty shop Bob's mama hears of another woman made another man disappear Robert ain't exactly scared of women, he's just got his own way of living

Bob's still got an antenna on a pole
G D
two channels come in, two more come and go

A
He used to watch the news but he don't anymore,

G D
ain't none of it new it's the same as before

A G
He figures all any of it's any good for is keeping everybody bored

D
till there ain't nobody like Bob anymore

Bob takes care of his mama she's a mess but he feels like he oughta How big a mess today? Ask Bob he'll say,
"She's a big one and she's gonna be a lotta"
He likes to drink a beer or two every now and again,
he always had more dogs than he ever had friends
Bob ain't light in the loafers, he might kneel but he never bends over
