```
        Eb
I can t blame you but it s a shame
                        F
you can t cover your ass sometimes.
              Eb                                        F
It s that kind of town and you re so far down you can t get up.
            Eb                       F
I can t tell you what to sell and how to tow the line
                      G         F
and when to just give up.
Eb                        F
Calling out to everyone who tried to run. You tried to run.

G        Bb        Eb        F     G     Bb        Eb     F
Don t be so easy on yourself
        G         Bb        Eb         F     G     Bb        Eb      F
 cause this one might be all that you have left.
G        Bb        Eb        F     G     Bb        Eb      F
Rearrange the voices in your head and remember what they said.
G        Bb        Eb        F     G     Bb        Eb      F
Don t be so easy on yourself.
```

```
        Eb
You got it down, you been around
              F
and you won t change your life
          Eb                                F
for redneck cops and traffic stops and residue
          Eb                                  F
but I can t tell you all the hell they ll put you through inside
                        G         F
and what they ll do to you.
Eb                                  F
Ten years down the road you ll find you re left behind. You re left behind.
