Drive-By Truckers - Lisa s birthday

A D A
It s always Lisa s birthday when I get that call

D A E
She s got no money for a cab she s way to drunk to walk

A D A
Lisa s had more birthdays than there are sad country songs

D A Bb A
about trying to love two women and only taking one girl home

E D A
It s a good thing that her dancing shoes don t run on gasoline

D A E
She could dry up Texas in one night the way she feels that beat

D A D
If I don t find them under the bed we make love on,

A Bb A
she s lighting Lisa s candles and they ll be burning all night long

D A
So happy birthday Lisa Good evening Jim Beam

F# E
Goodnight all you socialites don t wait up for me

D A D
I ll be out way past the time the scenes no sight to see

A
Ya ll don t live with Lisa

Bb A
And she don t stay with me

NO CHORD A D A
It s always Lisa s birthday when I get that call

D A E
Her car s not where she parked it it s with her wallet and her phone

A D A
Lisa s had more birthdays than there are sad country songs

D A Bb A
about trying to love two women and only taking one girl home

D A E D
I get older and Lisa keeps on turning twenty-one

End on A
