It s about makin it through the night
Everything s gonna be alright

A            B            E            A
Down in the basement I heard the speakers say
A            B            E
What do you really want to do
A            B            E            A
Out in the sunshine, I heard the sunshine say
A            B
Won t you come outside

Chorus Progression

Verse:

I wash the table, I clean the clothes
I hum along to the radio
Somehow I thought I could deal with this a little better
Still think I can with a little help from my friends
So catch the wind in the morning light
I close my eyes, I still hear your voice
But that s not . . . my imagination . . .
Is it really you . . .

Chorus:

Everything s gonna be alright
I can tell by the way I feel this time
Everything s gonna be alright
It s about love, It s about life
It s about makin it through this night
Everything s gonna be alright
It s about love, it s about time
It s about makin it through the night
Everything s gonna be alright
It s about love, it s about life
It s about me, it s about time
Everything s gonna be alright.
