

Broken Hymns

Dropkick Murphys

I saw only one chords for this song but it was not in correct order.
So I made this. It is my first work and done by ear. So will be glad if you send me any correction or anything.

If you think that some chords don t belong there try listen to the song very carfully and you might hear them. Or just skip them.
Enjoy!

D
Now the fog and smoke is lifting
D A
From the fallen row on row
D D A
In 1861 the prayed for God to keep their souls
D
Jimmy left home in April
D A
That was one year to the day
D
Writes his mother back home in Brighton
D A
But he ain t got much to say
G D
He s forgotten what his town looks like
A G A D A
The smell of death is all around
G D
He dreams of the blue Atlantic
A D G D A
To once again be homeward bound
D
Homeward bound
D
Though the road was long and winding
A D G D A
Many snares lay in their path
D
But their struggle they saw as righteous
A D G D A
The fought with might and stuck with wrath

Chorus:

G D
Now the battle hymns are playing
A G A D A

Report of shots not far ways

G D A

No prayer, no promise, no hand of God

D G D A

Could save their souls that April day

D

Tell their wives that they fought bravely

A D G D A

As they lay them in their graves

D

As the train pulled in the station

A D A

And the families gathered round

D

You could hear the first car echo

A D G D A

With a loud triumphant sound

D

But the last car it was silent

A D A

They listened close but they couldn't hear

D

It was laden down with coffins

A D G D A

That didn't speak and couldn't cheer

Repeat Chorus

Solo: D D A Bmi G

D

As the train pulled in the station

A D A

And the families gathered round

Bmi

You could hear the first car echo

A D A

With a loud triumphant sound

G D

Now the battle hymns are playing

A G A D A

Report of shots not far away

G D A

No prayer, no promise, no hand of God

D G D A

Could save theirs souls that April day

G D

Now the battle hymns are playing

A G A D A

Report of shots not far away

G D A

No prayer, no promise, no hand of God

D G D A
Could save the souls of the blue and grey

D
Tell their wives that they fought bravely

A D G D A
As they lay them in their graves