Can't believe I'm the first one to upload tab for this- the song's great and it's not that hard to play.

Intro
G C Em Am Em G

Verse

G C
We were born into nothing, hard up so to speak

Em Am
But love and affection this family afforded me

G C
Worries came early and often it seemed

Em Am
Fate was not pleasant still I was redeemed

G C
Then compassion soon faded to chaos

D G D
As they did their best all the while

Em C
When circumstance outweighs intention

Sometimes the mountains just too hard to climb

Chorus
G C
They were cruel, they were ignorant

D G D
They were beauty, they were kind

Em C
They were patience, they were virtue

They were crazy, they were mine

Intro again

I was young and I thought I knew everything
It s so hard to change a fool s mind
When you re stubborn by nature and quick to the draw
And you re full of inherited pride
But some lessons come harder than others
And some senses are harder to find
Your troubles won t end when you re saved by the bell
You ll still answer to those you defied

They were cruel, they were ignorant
They were beauty, they were kind
They were patience, they were virtue
They were crazy, they were mine

The heavens might sing out your praises

G

But the heavens won t pay for your lies

The sinners might pray for your problems

But the sinners won t look in your eye

Just play the chorus

They were crazy, they were mine

They were cruel, they were ignorant
They were beauty, they were kind
They were patience, they were virtue
They were crazy, they were mine

G and C until the end

The heavens might sing out your praises
But the heavens won t pray for your lies
The sinners might pay for your problems
But the sinner won t look in your eye
