

Dont Stop The Party Drunk Girl

Version I used here <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UKcLXtzhYo>
Capo third fret. I transposed the piano backing track which repeats throughout the song (except the first few measures of the chorus)
The song really comes to life when you add in embellishments.
Use this pattern as your basic building blocks:

	Dm	Am	C	Em
e	---1--0---	0--3---	(0)-----	0-1-0----
B	---3-----	1-----	1--0---	0-----1--
G	---2-----	2-----	0-----	0-----
D	---0-----	2-----	2-----	2-----
A	-----0-----	3-----	2-----

[Intro] x2

Dm Am C Em

[Verse 1]

Dm	Am
Everything comes from nothing
C	Em
Everything is something
Dm	Am	C Em
So just let it all keep happening

[Pre-Chorus]

Dm	Am	C
Don t be a means to someone s end, it s all just beginning
Em	Dm Am C Em
Why can t we extend an invitation to every hand
Dm	Am	C
All hands can clap, all hearts are beating equally
	Em
The pulls of the air we re breathing
Dm
If we can believe in one part of it
Am
Then we can believe in all of it
C	Em
So don t stop, don t stop the party

[Chorus] x6

Dm Am C Em

[Verse 2]

Dm	Am	C	Em
Play the music loud, form a bigger crowd

Dm Am C Em
Don t let the lights go out

[Pre-Chorus]

Dm Am C
Don t be a means to someone s end, it s all just beginning

Em Dm Am C Em
Why can t we extend an invitation to every hand

Dm Am C
All hands can clap, all hearts are beating equally

Em
The pulls of the air we re breathing

Dm
If we can believe in one part of it

Am
Then we can believe in all of it

C Em
So don t stop, don t stop the party
