

Love Someone

Dub FX

Dub fx - Love someone

Tuning: Standard

E, D, A, G through the whole song

Its possible to love someone
and not treat them in the way that you want its possible to see your eyes
be the devil in disguise
with another front-end

its possible to change this world revolutionize the boys and girls its possible to educate the next generation ever rule the world someday now

and not treat them in the way that you want

ever rule the world

now the changing times of the 21th century means nothing to me cause I would rather be at the beginning of time earth would be mine livin in luxury-hee discovering a world out there believing in the sun, earth, water and air take me there so I can see the world bloom standing on a sea cliff howling at the moon creating a world for the open minded a unique perception a true decided I know we can find it its a matter of where and when we collectively decided the world is not a vicious place its just the way we ve been raised discovering time and space I know we that could make a change rearrange the way that we appreciate the world today

and not treat them in the way that you want
its possible to see your eyes

ever rule the world someday someday somedayiiiiiee someday dayyyyyiiiiyeeeeeaaoo now as I start to put my mind into words I stall I fall im losing it all my inhibition the thought of wasting away the fact that the music s at a place not far away yet i stray stick to my world in love with my life my beliefs and my girl but is it luck that our love is crazy place the human race to get me wrong i still think we could change but this life

the fact that time exists were here we don t come equipped with it all half the fun is learning im having a ball the world keeps turning my road is small but I make a change I hope youre feeling the same way I ll be sayin say what i say

and not treat them in the way that you want
its possible to see your eyes
with another front-end

somedayyyayyh somedayayay in this concrete jungle we live our survival is love that we give now my instincts has got in my way its true what they say the world is your chance to create

this concrete jungle we live
screw what they say

with another front-end

with another front-end
