

Do You Believe In Shame
Duran Duran

Dm

Do you believe in love?
Do you believe in shame?

F

And if love can conquer all

G

Dm

Then why do we only feel the pain?

Dm

I heard you speak my name
Heard you singing The Stones

F

G

Maybe heard you laughing in a line of static

Dm

On my telephone

Dm

So why your eyelids are closed,
Inside a case of rust

F

And did you have to change

G

Dm

All your poets fire into frozen dust

Dm

I ve tried to justify it to learn from your mistake

F

G

But where s the stupid lie that has to make it s point

Dm

With such a pointless waste

Dm

F

G

Dm

Come out

Dm

Do you believe in shame?
Do you believe in love?

F

And if they taste the same

G

Dm

Would you love again or abandon both?

Dm

I don t think I ever can
Belive my friend has gone

F

G

Keep saying it s alright I m going to bring you back

Dm

But I know I m wrong

Dm

There s nothing I can say
There s nothing left to do

F

G

It s just that lately I feel so damn lonely

Dm

When I think of you

G

And it may seem selfish now

Dm

G

But I ll hold on to the memory

Bb

C

G

Until all this fear is washed away

Dm

Do you believe in love?

Do you believe in life?

F

G

Cos I believe a little part of you inside of me
Will never die...
