

Summer Is Over
Dusty Springfield

Summer Is Over - by Dusty Springfield

(Tom Springfield / Clive Westlake)

Cool song from the sixties which beautifully transports the melancholy mood at the end of the warm season. Could have been a tune from a James Bond or Quentin Tarantino movie.

Rhythm is three-four time.

Capo 4th fret

Intro: Em A Em Em (2x)

Em A Em
The night runs away with the day
 Em A Em
The grass that was green is now hay
 Am Em C B
The world goes around without even a sound
 Em A Em
And it looks like the summer is over

Em A Em
The rains tumble down in the sky
 Em A Em
Young swallows have learned how to fly
 Am Em C B
The leaves that were green are no longer so green
 Em A Em
And it looks like the summer is over

C D G A
The sun and the moon take turns in the sky
 C D G
The days drift on by too soon
F#7 Bm E7 Am
The meadows are kissed by a cool autumn mist
 B
Far away now is June

Em A Em
The birds fly away to the sun
 Em A Em
The leaves touch the ground one by one
 Am Em C B

The breeze hurries by without even goodbye

Em A Em

And it looks like the summer is over

C D G A

The sun and the moon take turns in the sky

C D G

The days drift on by too soon

F#7 Bm E7 Am

The meadows are kissed by a cool autumn mist

B

Far away now is June

Em A Em

The birds fly away to the sun

Em A Em

The leaves touch the ground one by one

Am Em C B

The breeze hurries by without even goodbye

Em A Em

And it looks like the summer is over

Em A Em

And it looks like the summer is over