

Goodbye

Dwight Twilley Band

A great tune by my favorite popmaster Dwight. As you know I can only document the basic DNA. Thanks! GaryV
Correction please - stardood@hotmail.com

Goodbye - by Dwight Twilley - Tulsa (Capo 1)

D

D Am
How many times have I watched you walk out that door

D Am
How many lines have I heard them all before

D G Em C D
But in your eyes a little more then goodbye, this time, ooo ooo

D Am
How many times have I waited by the phone
How many lives does our love affair still hold

D Am
Its such a crime when the feelings finally gone
I close my eyes and turn my shoulder to the cold

D G Em C D
But in your eyes,a little more then goodbye, this time, oooo
But in your eyes,a little more then goodbye, this time, oooo

G Em C
A litte more then good bye,in your eyes oooo
A litte more then good bye,in your eyes oooo

D G Em C D
A pennys not a dime disguised, this time ooo ooooo (Bridge)
A pennys not a dime disguised, this time ooo ooooo

A little more then goodbye, in your eyes ooooooo, ooooo End on G

Bridge

Am Em
But you feel older now, and so much colder

Am Em
You tug the world around on your shoulder on your shoulder (repeat)

C D
Oooo ooooo