There a face that ive seen b4, like the smile on a child in a candy store Paper dolls in the mud and rain, dance around in the crowd like they know your name
What if I never let you know, that the fire hides but the fire grows
G D Em C
In a place where the lightning struck when the towns burning down it can change your luck
Gotta laugh at it anyway, how we chase the ones that run away
When your lost and your all alone, in the ides of march and you finally know

We all need something to dream about, and in my case its you
I guess we all need something to dream about, and in my case its you
We all need something to dream about, and in my case its you

Something I couldnt live without, I couldnt live without you (chorus2/end)
