Somewhere out on that horizon
Out beyond the neon lights
I know there must be something better

But there s nowhere else in sight. Wo-oh-oh-oh

It s survival in the city, children
When you live from day to day
City streets don t have much pity, no

When you re down that s where you stay

I was born here in the city
With my back against the wall
Nothing grows and life ain t very pretty
No-one s there to catch you when you fall

Somewhere out on that horizon
Far away from the neon sky
I know there must be something, must be something better
And I can t stay another night
