C	D	G
Stepped off the plane	down in Cabo
C	D	G
Just meaning to stay	for a week
C	D	G
I got a funny sensation	about this vacation
C	D	G
The second the sand	hit my feet
C	D	G
Taxi driver took	my two bags
C	D	G
He saw me looking	at my watch
C	D	G
He said, you wonâ€™t	need that here	â€™cause	time disappears
C	D	G
In paradise	there ainâ€™t	no clocks

Chorus:

D	C	G
Youâ€™ve got a lot	to learn about	livinâ€™
D	C	G
Itâ€™s a different	world down	here
D	C	G
Our biggest	problemâ€™s	decidinâ€™	what fish weâ€™re fryinâ€™
D	C	G

Does it go with tequila or beer

He dropped me off at the hotel
I took a u-turn into the bar
I sat down on a stool out by the pool
Next to a lady smoking a Cuban cigar
I ordered a drink and took out my cell phone
I tried to make a call to L.A.
Dang thing wouldn't work, I started to curse
Bartender said, I bet it can wait

Chorus

D C G D C G
Aye, aye, aye . . . change is in the air
D C G D C G
Now, aye, aye, I . . . ain't got a care

Six months later, I'm driving a taxi
I got a Hawaiian shirt and a tan
Pick up some guy in a Brooks Brothers tie
I say, it's time to loosen up man

Chorus

There's a lot to learn about livin'
It's a different life down here
Our biggest problem's decidin' what fish
we're fryin'
Does it go with tequila or beer

Enjoy
