

Rust
Echo & The Bunnymen

C
I wish that you were here
Am
Down amongst the dust
F
I need someone to help me
G
You need someone to trust
C
There s something with these tears
Am
Turning me to rust
F
I need someone to help me
G
Yeah I need someone to touch

C G Am
Give me one more try
F C G
And I ll come flaking back to you
C
I wish that you were here
G
I wish that it was true

C Dm G
I can feel the stars shooting through my heart like rain
C Dm G
Leaving on the scars where the pleasure turns to pain
C
Point me in a light
Dm G
Bright and shiny in right direction
Am F G
And then take me home again
